NZ POST RURAL DELIVERY ROUND - (CML 11131)

Highly sought after NZ Post rural delivery round available in a favoured high growth location in Northland – first time on the market since 2016.

This profitable business operates Monday to Friday (leaving weekends free) and is sold on a going concern basis.

The business is a delivery and pick-up service for NZ Post with approximately 900 delivery points comprising of rural and lifestyle properties. Unusually for a rural delivery run this opportunity includes approximately 50 commercial customers generating good year round income.

The NZ Post contract ensures guaranteed monthly income with minimal invoicing and no bad debts, being a non-exclusive contract there is additional income from other courier companies.

Interested purchasers will need to meet NZ Post approval and will receive comprehensive training. The owners are prepared to provide an extended period of assistance to ensure a smooth transition to the new owners.

This opportunity would suit a motivated hard-working individual, couple or family who would enjoy working in their own business that has a simple structure and guaranteed income stream.
