The dance is quite simply, quite simply, dance The students of the Academy train for examinations in jazz, hip hop, and ballet under the APDA (Jazzaddict Australasia, Urban Ignition Hip Hop) and the newly released La Beaut (Ballet syllabi). The studio also offers contemporary and conditioning classes. Students range from pre-school up to Solo Seal (pre-professional level) and also offers a teacher training programme. The composition of the school is: Jazz 393, Hip hop 145, Ballet 62, Contemporary 72, Acrobatics 15, Stretch/ Strength 35, Competition troupes 144, Tour Group (Florida Disney) performance tour group 17. The Academy has grown to 883 enrolment placements over the past 18 years (this number climbs to over 950 during terms 3 and 4 with the additional performance classes for chorus/lead dancers in the show). An annual performance is a school calendar highlight. Four performances are held each year at the Bruce Mason Theatre in Takapuna. Theatre bookings are in place currently until 2022. Good long-term relationships are maintained with theatre, uniform, travel tour and costume suppliers. Located in Auckland with public transport on the school address is 250-252 Taniwha St, Glen Innes. It is central and easy to reach. Due to the high standard and reputation, the Academy is the preferred choice of many private school students and local east and bays residents. The studio premises have 3 beautiful dance studios with superb flooring, mirrors and barres. A specialist Harlequin tarketted dance floor and air-conditioning provides facilities of a professional quality in Studio 3. All studios are bright with natural light and good ventilation. There are several bathrooms, a store-room, uniform shop (equipped with shop fittings) and lovely reception area for students and parents to gather. There is a strong, specialised team of teaching staff and excellent accounts, administration and support staff. The teaching faculty take great pride in fostering a supportive and friendly environment where the students feel a sense of family. There is an emphasis on strong technique training and performance quality to create well-rounded dancers. Victoria Phillips Academy has an excellent standard and reputation and is proud to have candidates achieve top examination marks in Australasia regularly. Students have also received national scholarships, been selected for roles in professional international stage shows and attended full-time dance tertiary institutions in Australia. Many students are now performing professionally, teaching and examining. The accounting system is on Xero. The database, rolls and invoicing system are on the US software system 'Jackrabbitt Dance'. The software provides online registration which is integrated with the studio website so customers can enrol into classes online. The software also provides customers with a portal (for clients to manage their details and view
